

Lisbon Classic [AM]

Lisbon's lighting is unique, rain or shine. We want you to revel in it and to see it reflected in the places that make Lisbon the special city it is, filled with history and traditions. With the Tagus River as a backdrop for the tour, we'll take you to the monuments that bear witness to our great voyage on seas which had never before been explored and where you can visit one of our most fascinating museums. We'll also take you to visit one of Lisbon's oldest and most traditional quarters, where Fado echoes around every corner. Join us in taking in the skies of Lisbon.

Sintra [Half Day]

Sintra keeps many of the Royal Family's secrets. It safeguards them with affection and gratitude in every corner of the secular monuments it houses. We are prepared to reveal them to you, but... only a few.

So get ready: you'll discover a unique town, with a climate of its own and... it's beautiful. So beautiful that you'll want to get lost in its streets, its palaces, mansions and chalets, and indulge in its traditional cakes and pastries. During this trip, you will see where the Portuguese Royal Family spent its summers, as well as Cabo da Roca, the westernmost point of Europe. We'll also pop by Boca do Inferno (Hell's Mouth), the cosmopolitan town of Cascais and the gardens of the Estoril Casino.

Arrábida & Sesimbra - Wine Tour [Half Day]

There are not enough words to describe yet another of our country's treasures. But, let's take it one step at a time, so that you know what's in store: first we'll cross the 25th of April Bridge heading toward the south shore of the Tagus River. Don't forget to look to your right, where you'll see the mouth of Portugal's largest river, and to the left, where you'll have a breathtaking view of Lisbon. We'll then head towards the Castle of Sesimbra, overlooking the fishing village with its predominantly white tones. We'll visit the handmade tile factory and then we'll explore Arrábida Mountain, a breathtaking natural park, and a take in the stunning view of the Troia peninsula. In Azeitão, we'll visit the cellars, where you'll get the opportunity to taste the wines of the region.
